Another Bank Cashier Gone Wrong and Some Cold, Hard Cash Gone.

HE HAD TIME TO GO TO CANADA.

But He Failed to Avail Himself of His Immense Opportunities.

A Former Teller Arraigned With Him, Charged With Complicity.

The cashier and his son-in-law, a former teller of the Toledo National Bank, are under arrest, charged with appropriating $58,000 of the bank's money. The alleged crookedness in the bank's accounts was discovered a year ago, but no steps have been taken until this week, when the cashier was arrested and arraigned before the United States Commissioner, and his son-in-law, overtaken in Chicago, brought home, and also bound over little Mrs. Eldridge came on deck teller of the Toledo National Bank, are un-Chicago, brought home, and also bound over (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.) TOLEDO, O., November 5 .- A thunder-Monday by United States Marshal Ben F. Wade, but was kept shady until to-day, when Van Hoesen was quickly sneaked into court before United States Commissioner Hall, and arraigned for the crime. The hearing was short and sweet, and resulted in Van Hoesen's being bound over for trial at court. His bail, which was fixed at $70,000, was promptly /urnished, but the names of his bondsmen are unknown.

Van Hoesen is a popular man, and was children being married.

AN OLD TELLER IN THE TOILS. J. M. McKee, who was arrested in Chicago last night, charged with complicity in the crime, was formerly teller in the same institution. O late years be has been down on his luck, and has been treading the easy by members of that body, and a few weeks ago was sent to the county inebriate asylum at Chicago. McKee arrived in the city this morning, in charge of a deputy United States marshal, and was arraigned with Van Hoesen. As in the former case, the ball was fixed at $70,000, and was promptly fur-

The alleged crookedness of Mr. Van Hoesen and his accomplice was discovered about a year ago. Bank Examiner Sullivan, while examining the bank's books, discovered something was wrong, and an investigation disclosed the true state of affairs.

Mr. Sullivan at once procured the necessary papers for but before further steps were taken con cluded to consult the stockholders of the bank. He called a meeting and laid the matter before them, assuring them that the matter must at once be straightened up, or the most extreme steps would be taken as to the bank. The directors were astounded and smazed, and at first refused to believe the examiner's story, but when all the proofs of their trusted official's peculation were laid before them, they were forced to

Mr. Van Hoesen begged to be shielded of consultation several of the stockholders came to the front and put up for the deficiency. Mr. Van Hoesen was discharged at once, H. Young becoming his successor. The matter has remained in this state ever since, a-til within the past few days, when it was determined that the embezzling cashier should be prosecuted. It is gen-erally believed that other levelopments of an unexpected nature have cropped out, and that the bank officials were forced to take the step to protect themselves. Neither of the defendants are rieb, both, in fact, being short of money. The United States Commissioner has nothing to say, and refuses to be interviewed.

HE WHIPPED HIMSELF.

The Reason Why a Lawrenceville Man Wished He Hadn't

There is an old adage which says man often makes a whip to beat himself. The truth of the adage has been frequently demonstrated, but never more forcibly than in the case of George Randal yesterday. Three days ago Randal made an informs-tion before Alderman Porter, charging George Thomas, a colored waiter, with surety of the peace. At the hearing yesterday there was no evidence to convict Thomas, Randal alleged that the waiter flourished a long steel carving knife at him, threatening to sever his jugular vein. No one could be found to corroborate the story, and the Alderman discharged the case.

This verdict angered Randal and he glanced around at the crowd, casting a withering look upon James Jiles, proprietor of the restaurant where Thomas was em-ployed. Shortly after Randal went out of ployed. Shortly after Randal went out of the office, Jiles, with his friends, went down the street to Alderman Doughty's. At the 'Squire's they met Randal. He had made an information betere the 'Squire accusing Jiles with keeping a "speak-easy." This new turn surprised Jiles and he asked the Alderman for an immediate trial. The hearing was proceeded forthwith. The case ended similarly to the former one. No evidence could be produced which reflected on Jiles' character

During the trial, Attorney Miller, who was bondsman for Randal on another case, said to Alderman Doughty: "I surrender this man's bail." Randal looked askance with horror, and said: "You don't mean to say that, do you?" "Yes, I do," said the lawver. Jiles had sued Randal on Tuesday for disorderly conduct, and Mr. Miller had gone on his bail. After hearing the evidence in the "speak-casy" case he concluded to give Randal over to the Alderman, who committed him to fail until the hearing, when he was fined $10 and costs or 30 days to the workhouse.

Allegheny Light Company Preparing to Put

Their Wires Underground. There will be a meeting of the stockhold ers of the Allegheny County Electric Light Company, held at the office of the company on January 4, to consider the matter of in-creasing the capital stock. The business of the company has increased so rapidly within the past year or two, that it has been found necessary to make some changes. The stock-holders will be made acquainted with the business of the company, what increases may be expected in the near future, and they will then be asked to determine what additional capital is necessary.

In March, 1886, the company had place 150 16-candle power and a very small num ber of arc lights. Now they have over 28,000 incandescent lights and about 800 as lights. The indications are that thes figures will be increased 50 per cent within the next year. They have also about 20 single horse power motors in various buil ings throughout the two cities. The desi to increase the capital stock is also prompte by a possibility of the company being corp-lied to put their wires underground. A pelled to put their wires underground. "About two years ago, after suffering for nearly two years from rheumatic gout, being able to walk only with great discomfort, and having tried various remedies, including mineral waters, without relief, I saw by an advertise-ment in a Chicago paper that a man had been relieved of this distressing com-plaint, after long suffering, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I then decided to make a trial of this medicine, and took it regularly for eight months, and am pleased to state that it has effected a complete cure. I have since had no return of the disease."—Mrs. R. Irving Dodge, 110 West 125th st., New York.

"One year ago I was taken ill with inflammatory rheumatism, being confined to my house six months. I came out of the sickness very much debilitated, with no appetite, and my system disordered in every way. I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla and began to improve at once, gaining in strength and soon recovering my usual health. I cannot say too much in praise of this well-known medicine."—Mrs. L. A.
